APRIL 2023

Area Agency on Aging District 7

Welcome to our April 2023 news e-blast - sharing our "Top Three" focus items. As always, reach out to us with any questions and follow us on our social media platforms!

1

Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program

Applications are now available for the Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program, which provides vouchers for eligible seniors to use with participating farmers in the Program. You can find the application on our website at www.aaa7.org. Farmers are also needed for the program - more details also available on our website. For more information, call the AAA7's Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program Hotline at 1-800-343-8112 or e-mail FarmersMarket@aaa7.org.

Dementia Conversations

We are proud to partner with the Holzer Health System Inpatient Psychiatric Unit and the Alzheimer's Association on a free educational workshop that offers helpful tips to assist families in having honest and caring conversations with family members about dementia. The workshop entitled "Dementia Conversations" is virtual and will be held on Tuesday, May 9th at 10:00 am.

New Director of Business Development

The AAA7 recently welcomed Andrea Williams as Director of Business Development, a new position that is focused on engagement and outreach opportunities, and fundraising for the Agency. Williams, a native of Vinton County, currently resides in Jackson and received her bachelor's degree in Long-Term Care Health Care Administration from Ohio University.
