Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program Update

The Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program is a federally and state-funded program that provides vouchers for eligible seniors to use with participating farmers in the Program. What a successful year we have had so far with over 2,900 applications received! Applications are still being accepted and vouchers can be used through the end of the growing season this year (by the end of October). We are also still welcoming and recruiting farmers to participate. For more information, call the AAA7's Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program Hotline at 1-800-343-8112 or e-mail FarmersMarket@aaa7.org, or click on any of the links below.
