Maintaining Professional Boundaries: It’s In Your Hands

May 11, 2017 • 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm
Piketon Comfort Inn, 7525 US Route 23
Piketon, Ohio

BONUS SESSION After Nursing Law • Contact Hour Available

Learning Objective: This continuing nursing education activity is designed to provide an overview of Ohio’s ORC/OAC Chapter 4723 nursing rules and laws related to scope of practice and professional boundaries. Includes an interactive discussion on the application of a practitioner’s professional boundaries given the demands for patient-centered care and the evolution of social media into both the consumer’s and the healthcare professional’s everyday worlds (and workplaces).

About the Speaker:
Terry Pope is the founder and President of the Nursing Institute for Continuing Education – also known as N.I.C.E., and the Executive Director of the Mid-Ohio District Nurses Association. She also serves as an accreditation appraiser for the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC). Terry is currently serving as the Nurse Peer Review Leader for the North Carolina Nurses Association. Prior to starting her own leadership development and training company for nurses, Terry served in executive leadership positions for 25 years in the areas of acute care, ambulatory care, education, and home care/hospice. Terry brings a wealth of knowledge, experience, humor and new insights to every program she provides. She has presented numerous continuing education programs nationally, regionally, and across the state for the Professional Nurse Educators Group, Ohio Health Care Association, Ohio Council for Home Care & Hospice, Ohio Nurses Association, the Ohio Association of School Nurses, the Ohio Department of Health, and many other health care organizations. Terry is currently serving as chair of the Ohio Nurses Association’s Continuing Education Approval Council and is a member of the Ohio Board of Nursing’s Continuing Education Advisory Group.

1.0 Nurse Contact Hour will be awarded.
